Celebrating the JCC and its Impact in the Community

Throughout the year, more than 60,000 individuals visit the JCC and the Gordon Center. They come as members or guests to enjoy our sports and wellness facilities, to participate in the Stoler Early Childhood Center, J Camps, or our other enrichment experiences. Many also come as patrons of the Gordon Center to see dynamic live music, dance, and family performances or to attend community events.

J Live at the Gordon is one of the JCC's signature annual events featuring an evening of fun and entertainment while also increasing awareness about the JCC's unique ability to effectively serve Jews across the religious spectrum as well as the broader community. Your support of J Live enables the JCC to raise funds for need-based scholarships that ensure individuals and families can participate in JCC programs such as preschool, inclusion programming, J Camps, JCC Maccabi and Membership. Each year the JCC provides more than $330,000 in need-based financial assistance that provides support to as many as 700 families.

OUR 2025 BEZALEL AWARDEE...

We are thrilled to present Myrna Cardin with the 2025 JCC Bezael Leadership Award. In addition to being a lifelong JCC member, Myrna served as Board Chair from 1993 to 1995. Other leadership roles included past president of the Baltimore Jewish Council, the Associated's Baltimore Jewish Life Lead Team and the Baltimore Hebrew Institute Advisory Committee at Towson University. Myrna is also a past board member of Jewish Community Services and ACHARAI (now Na'aleh). In the general community Myrna was Chair of the Board of Visitors for Towson and served on the boards of the Baltimore Leadership School for Young Women and the University of Maryland Baltimore Foundation. She also served as a member of the Advisory Board of Congressional Families' Action for Cancer Awareness. Myrna is passionate about working with others to make our Baltimore community a better place for all.

J LIVE IS MORE THAN A CONCERT—IT IS A PARTY YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS!

Our J Live guests will enjoy a dynamic and interactive performance by Drummer Max Weinberg and his talented band who will perform their Jukebox Tour—taking audience requests from a revolving list of about 300 songs from the '60s and '70s.
